

TEACHING PEOPLE ABOUT PERSONHOOD

Traditionally, this blue line is believed to separate "good" aspects of human personhood from "bad."

I-ness of God higher consciousness transcendent awareness agape

good • real • spiritually valid • safe bad • delusional • second rate • inherently dangerous

NOW, for the good of humanity, the "line" should be moved to here (red line) in human consciousness.

individuality passion, desire frailty, sensitivity personal love, human love interpersonal relationship

← This is all GOOD.

[NOTE: In reality, the line has always been here. It has only been assumed, as a result of ego's effects, to be elsewhere.]

egotism/delusion destructive tendencies: lust, greed, obsessive attachment/aversion

← This black made this white seem gray.
